Update

UMCOR and Connecticut group working in Westfield. ~48 homes still needing clean-up in the municipalities of Westfield, Brockton, Silver Creek, Fredonia, Sheridan and Portland. Communication among responding partners and Chautauqua County government working well. Westfield United Methodist Church is being strained to provide sheltering for the number of volunteers expected to arrive. Tony Faso and Norma Cummings remain the POCs for Chautauqua County Office of Emergency Services. [See Response Points of Contact list]

Expressed need(s)

The present needs are for muck-out of those impacted plus sheltering, showers and feeding for responding volunteer teams.

Action:

N. Cummings approaching Brockton Schools for showering
J. Klatt may have sheltering resource at the Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center
N. Cummings working with local community kitchens regarding food
J. Auslander will contact his district superintendent regarding sheltering for volunteers
ALL: Communicate directly with Norma Cummings regarding both needs and resources for showering, feeding and sheltering of volunteers

What each agency can offer and needs:
